

Guidelines for Managing California's
Hardwood Rangelands
A Workshop for Owners and Managers

University of California Cooperative Extension
Integrated Hardwood Range Management Program

Location and Date:

6/1/05 San Luis Obispo County – UCCE Auditorium
2156 Sierra Way Suite C. San Luis Obispo (morning)
Field Session Afternoon, location Santa Margarita Ranch/Cuesta Ridge Vineyard

Questions about this workshop can be directed to Local (tel 805-781-5940 or Royce Larsen at 805-237-3101, email relarsen@ucdavis.edu).

Agenda

Morning Session (8:00 am to 12:00 pm)

Registration, coffee and refreshments

Welcome

Current policy environment and introduction to “Guidelines...”

Oaks, Habitats and wildlife of Hardwood Rangelands

Break

Oak Regeneration (indoor session)

Range and Livestock Interactions

Hardwood Silviculture and Sustainable Management

12:00 – 1:30 Lunch and Travel to field site

Afternoon:

1:30 – 4:00 Overview of site, local management considerations.

Oak Regeneration (outdoor session)

Vineyard Management Relative to Oak Woodlands

Environmental Considerations

Speakers: University of California Advisors, Specialists, and campus faculty and local landowners/managers and Consultants.